Dear President and Members of Atlanta City Council:

The BeltLine Network is pleased to offer the appointment of Rev. Larry L. Hill to the TAD Advisory Committee to fill the remaining term of our previous appointee Al Bartell, who resigned.

Rev. Hill, founder and pastor of The Word of God Ministries, will provide technical expertise in the area of Community Outreach. He is the founder and chief executive officer of Northwest Youth Power, Inc., a non-profit community based youth organization. In addition, Rev. Hill is a Board member of the Concerned Black Clergy, served as chairperson of Salute to Black Fathers for two years, served two terms as Chairperson YMCA Metro Atlanta Policy Council Board, currently serves as Vice President of the Northwest Business Association, and is Chairperson of the Hollowell Partners on Education (HOPE) board.

We believe his experience will make him an asset on the Advisory Committee.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth B. Coyle
Chair
